TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-described Access and Use Easement unto the Benefited Parties, their successors and assigns forever (subject to the terms hereof and any easements, covenants, conditions, restrictions or other matters of record).

2. Maintenance of Amenities; Cost Sharing. (a) Following completion of the initial Amenities within the Shared Common Area and acceptance thereof by all applicable governmental authorities, the Residential HOA, by and through its Board of Directors (initially, the "Responsible Party"), shall be the party primarily responsible for the maintenance, repair, replacement and/or operation of all Amenities located within the Shared Common Area in accordance with all applicable governmental requirements and the standards of maintenance then applicable to the maintenance of public parks and open space adopted by the City of Mesquite, Dallas County, Texas, including, without limitation, landscaping, seasonal planting, capital improvements, obtaining insurance, and/or obtaining utility services to serve the Shared Common Area and Amenities and improvements there on (the "Maintenance Obligations"), and the Responsible Party may delegate its obligations and duties hereunder to perform the Maintenance Obligations to a property management company or other third party; subject to the right of the Commercial POA (initially, the "Non-Responsible Party(ies)") to perform such Maintenance Obligations in accordance with the terms of Section 3(d) hereof. The Responsible Party or its delegate must contract with a reputable landscaping contractor doing business in the region in which the Benefitted Property is located in connection with the performance of the Maintenance Obligations hereunder. The Residential HOA may select vendors, enter into contracts, obtain bids or proposals for performance of Maintenance Obligations, obtain insurance for the Shared Common Area, and otherwise determine the scope and specific requirements related to the Maintenance Obligations and Maintenance Costs in its sole and absolute discretion.

(b) Each Owner of a Commercial Tract shall be liable and responsible for such Owner's Pro-Rata Share (as defined below) of the costs and expenses incurred by the Responsible Party in connection with satisfaction of its Maintenance Obligations pursuant to this Agreement (the "Maintenance Costs"). The Maintenance Costs shall include, without limitation, any and all fees charged by managing agent employed or contracted with by the Responsible party to oversee any carry out the Maintenance Obligations hereunder. The "Pro-Rata Share" (herein so called) of each Owner of a Commercial Tract shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (i) an amount equal to forty percent (40%) of the budgeted Maintenance Costs determined by the Residential HOA ("Amenity Contribution"), which Amenity Contribution initially shall be no greater than $200,000.00, by (ii) the fraction whose numerator is the linear feet of frontage along the Shared Common Area of an Owner's Commercial Tract and denominator of which is the aggregate linear feet of frontage along the Shared Common Area of all Commercial Tracts. Each Commercial Tract Owner's Pro-Rata Share of any Amenity Contribution for a calendar year shall be invoiced on or about January 1 of the calendar year for which such amounts are due and owing to the Responsible Party and delinquent if not paid on or before January 31 of such calendar year. For avoidance of doubt, each Owner's Pro-Rata Share of Amenity Contribution shall be paid in advance on January 1 and delinquent after January 31 of the then current calendar year based on the best available estimate of costs determined by the Residential HOA as shown in the budget adopted by the Residential HOA for the then current calendar year (i.e. each Owner's Pro-Rata Share of any Amenity Contribution due on January 1, 2021 shall be applied to Maintenance Costs for the 2021 calendar year). The Owners of the Commercial Tracts shall each pay their Pro-Rata Share of the Amenity Contribution due under this Agreement directly to the Residential HOA unless otherwise expressly directed in writing by the Commercial POA. In the event that the Residential HOA incurs unanticipated overages in the Maintenance Costs in any calendar year, the Residential HOA may adjust the Amenity Contribution to account for such Overages and invoice the Owners of the Commercial Tracts for each of their Pro-Rata Share of the overages applicable to the adjusted Amenity Contribution, which shall be due and delinquent if not paid in full within thirty (30) days after invoicing. The Residential HOA shall provide to the Commercial POA on an annual basis within ninety (90) days of the end of a calendar year copies of all invoices and receipts related to the costs and/or expenses included in the Maintenance Costs (initially budgeted, and/or any adjustment thereof) for such calendar year.

(c) If any Owner of a Commercial Tract fails to timely deliver its Pro-Rata Share of Amenity Contribution, or any other amounts due hereunder (including, without limitation, amounts which may become due pursuant to the terms hereof), to the Responsible Party as and when required hereunder, the Responsible Party may file a lien on such Owner's property after thirty (30) days' notice and opportunity to cure such failure, to secure such Owner's obligation to pay its Pro-Rata Share of the Amenity Contribution, until all amounts due and owing by such Owner to the Responsible Party are paid in full. The obligation of an Owner to pay its Pro-Rata Share of the Amenity Contribution hereunder may be enforced by judicial or non-judicial foreclosure. A non-judicial foreclosure must be conducted in accordance with the provisions applicable to the exercise of powers of sale as set forth in Section 51.002 of the Texas Property Code, or in any manner permitted by law. In any foreclosure, the Owner is required to pay the Responsible Party's costs and expenses for proceedings, including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses. The foregoing rights and remedies shall be in addition to any and all other remedies available to the Responsible Party hereunder, at law or in equity.

The lien securing the amounts due and payable herein shall be subordinate to (i) liens of ad valorem taxes and (ii) statutory liens having priority by operation of law, (iii) the lien of any first lien deed of trust, mortgage or other similar security instrument granting, creating, or conveying a lien or security interest upon an Owner's property for financing of the acquisition of such property and/or for the finance of the acquisition and/or construction of improvements thereon that has been recorded in the real property records of Dallas County, Texas ("Priority Mortgage"). Sale or transfer of any Owner's property subject to this Agreement shall not affect the lien hereby created; however, the sale or transfer of any Owner's property pursuant to foreclosure of a first Mortgage or any conveyance in lieu thereof, shall extinguish the lien for payments which become due prior to such sale or transfer (but not extinguish claims against the Owner personally for amounts due and unpaid). No such sale or transfer shall relieve such property from liability for any amounts thereafter becoming due or from the lien thereof.

(d) In the event that the Residential HOA fails to perform the Maintenance Obligations of with respect to the Amenities, the Commercial POA through its Board of Directors may, upon thirty (30) days written notice delivered to the Residential HOA (the "Default Notice"), provided that the Residential HOA has not cured such failure within the aforementioned thirty (30) day period (provided the Residential HOA shall be afforded such additional time to cure for matters that cannot be reasonably cured within such thirty (30) day period as long as the Residential HOA has commenced such cure within thirty (30) days after receipt of a Default Notice and diligently pursues curing same thereafter), may, but has no obligation to, assume the duties and responsibilities of the Responsible Party hereunder to cause the required maintenance, replacement or repair of the Amenities as specified in the Default Notice to be performed and shall be entitled to rights of a Responsible Party to be reimbursed in connection therewith; provided, however, in no event shall any Owner of a single Commercial Tract or a single lot within the Residential Subdivision be entitled to be the Responsible Party under this Agreement; it being understood and agreed that the Commercial POA shall perform all rights, duties and obligations of the Owners of the Commercial Tracts hereunder and the Residential HOA shall perform all rights, duties and obligations of the Owners of lots within the Residential Subdivision hereunder.

(e) The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that all or any portion of the Shared Common Area may be conveyed by the owner thereof to the Residential HOA without requirement of acceptance or acknowledgement of the conveyance thereof to the Commercial POA, and/or the Commercial Owners, for themselves and the Commercial POA, hereby accepts any such conveyance of the Shared Common Area to the Residential HOA.
